

Tribunal Administrative Justice Bursary Application

The Foundation of Administrative Justice (FOAJ) is a non-profit society dedicated to education and training for the administrative justice community, its appointed members, staff, and stakeholders.

The Tribunal Administrative Justice Bursary was started in 2009 and created in recognition of its benefactor, David Elliott, to recognize his spirited passion and commitment to excellence and his belief that there are no barriers to furthering one's learning.

This Bursary is an annual award of $1,500.00 open to anyone pursuing secondary or furthered learning in legal studies. Preference will be given to individuals that are:

- a member of FOAJ
- an employee or board member of an organization that is a member of FOAJ
- requiring financial assistance to obtain or continue education
- registered to attend a FOAJ course or other training related to administrative justice provided by a recognized secondary educational institute

Only those applications received between January 1 and December 1 of each year will be eligible.

The Bursary is deemed as income under the Income Tax Act. The successful recipient will receive a T4A from FOAJ.

To apply submit the following to admin@foaj.ca:

- A completed application
- A letter outlining a brief biography including education, career goals, relationship to administrative justice, and how administrative justice training will assist you in your professional development journey
- A copy of the course or program registration(s) or other related training
